

In commemoration of the 60th anniversary of the 1956 Hungarian Revolution the Hungarian Consulate General of Seattle, the Hungarian American Association of Washington, the Seattle-Pécs Sister City Association and the Hungarian Reformed Church of Seattle cordially invite you to a recital by internationally acclaimed pianist

ENDRE HEGEDŰS

Saturday, May 7, 2016 4:00PM
Plymouth Church
1217 Sixth Avenue
Seattle, WA 98101

Liszt: Szózat & Himnusz ~ Anthems

Bartók: Este a székelyeknél & Allegro barbaro ~
An evening at the Seklers & Allegro barbaro

Liszt: Isten áldása a magányban
~ Benediction of God in Solitude

Liszt: XIV. magyar rapszódia ~
Hungarian Rhapsody #14

Liszt: 104. Petrarca-sonett ~ Sonnet 104 of Petrarch

Bartók: Szonatina ~ Sonatina

Liszt: I. Mefisztó-keringő ~ Mephisto-waltz #1

Liszt: Szerelmi álmok ~ Dreams of Love

Bartók: Régi táncdalok ~ Old dance songs

Liszt: XV. magyar rapszódia "Rákóczi-induló" ~
Hungarian Rhapsody #15 "Rákóczi-march"

Endre Hegedűs is a well-known Hungarian pianist in the international and Hungarian concert scene. During the 40 years of his career, he has performed more than 3,000 live concerts. He has recorded 35 CDs and 5 DVD albums. The total length of his concert films for television exceeds 35 hours. His vast repertoire, focusing mainly on composers of the romantic era, includes a special interest for piano works of Chopin and Franz Liszt.

He participated in 20 international piano competitions, in Athens, Milan, Sydney and Budapest among others, and won altogether 10 prizes. He has received many honors and prizes in his native Hungary. The most important state-prizes are the Franz Liszt Prize in 2000, and the highest cultural honor given by the Hungarian state president, the Kossuth Prize in 2014.

He has played concerts on four continents, and has toured 77 times in Japan and 26 times in the U.S. He has given guest performances to great acclaim in several countries in Europe, in Australia, Japan, Canada and the United States. Endre Hegedűs often performs as a soloist of concertos for piano and orchestra. He has played with the leading Hungarian orchestras and also with the Symphonic orchestras of Sydney, Milano, Bruno and Utah.

Suggested donation: $25

Free parking in the Plymouth garage under the church – enter from University Street.
For reservations please contact Maria Kramar at 206.284.5456 or Laszlo Csepregy at lazloco@msn.com